

Viet Nam Reds Shoot Down 5 U.S. Copters

By PETER ARNETT

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Communist guerrillas shot down five U.S. helicopters today, killing an American Army officer and wounding three other American servicemen.

It was the Viet Cong's biggest victory against the American-manned helicopters flying government troops into battle.

The Communists, stood ground and fought back against relays of fighter bombers striking at them in the Mekong River delta instead of running for cover as they usually do after an attack.

Hours after the helicopters were downed the fighting was reported still raging 50 miles southwest of Saigon with wave after wave of guerrillas attacking in an attempt to destroy the downed aircraft to strip them of machine guns.

The three wounded American servicemen—two of them reported in serious condition—were evacuated to a hospital. The officer was taken from the battle area while still alive. He died later.

Communist groundfire hit more than 10 U.S. Army helicopters but brought down only five.

Reports of ground action were vague, but sources said fighter bombers were first called into action in mid-morning, a few minutes after eight helicopters were hit as they moved in to land troops a town objective near the delta town of Vinh Long, 50 miles southwest of Saigon.

Ten fighter bombers were sent into action, and military sources indicated they would continue sorties until dark.

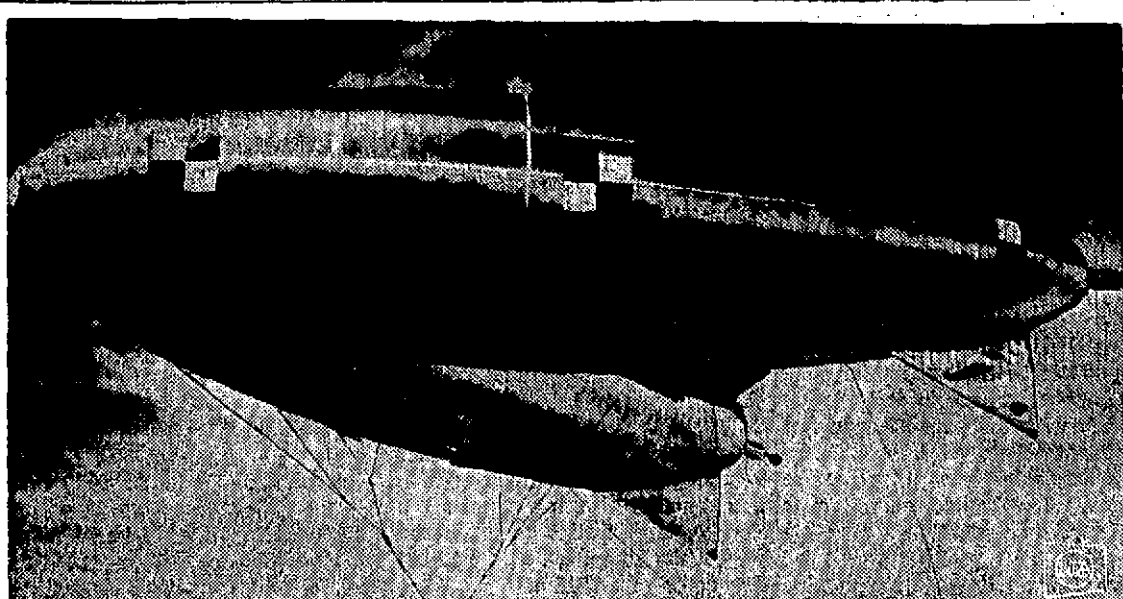

Two of the helicopters hit were escort craft armed with rockets and machine guns. One was reported able to fly out of the area, but the other was downed.

Six other troop-carrying helicopters were hit. Four were downed but two got away.

Government forces also launched an unusually large operation a short distance from the Cambodian frontier in the province of Tay Ninh, northwest of Saigon.

Five hundred troops were lifted in by U.S. helicopters and more than 1,200 paratroopers were dropped. About 85 aircraft, including fighters, bombers, helicopters

TETHERED TWINS—Like two silver cigars fused together at one end, weird inflatable structure above—the Vee-Balloon—has been developed by Goodyear for supporting scientific instruments above ground. The 27-foot-diameter balloons, made of a new type polyester fabric, fan out from their tips until they are 80 feet apart at the separated end. Woman's Missing Body Is Found

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP)—An 18-year-old fisherman found the body of Mrs. Doris Jean Norrid, 35, floating in a lake here Tuesday. She had been missing since Dec. 4.

Jerry Northrup of Fort Smith said he was fishing alone on Lakeside, the only name by which the water-filled former rock quarry is known. The boy said the body was floating about 100 feet from shore.

An autopsy was performed by J. D. McClary, the Sebastian County Coroner, who made the identification. He said the body had been in the lake an undetermined length of time and showed no signs of violence.

Mrs. Norrid, the mother of five children, was reported missing by her husband, Roy Gene, Fort Smith police said. Their home is about a quarter of a mile from the lake, which is 60 to 70 feet deep in places.

Five Persons Almost Lost Their Lives

GRAVETTE, Ark. (AP)—Five persons were held for observation overnight in a hospital here after the quick thinking of one of them saved them all from asphyxiation Tuesday.

Kenneth Huff, 5, saved himself and the four other persons after a water heater in his home at Ginger Blue, Mo., began leaking gas. All were reported in good condition.

Kenneth awoke early Tuesday and found his mother, Mrs. Bobbie Huff, his brother, Robert, 6, his sister, Doretha, 3, and Mrs. Clara Betjen, a friend, of Mrs. Huff, all unconscious because of gas.

The youngster revived his mother momentarily by using a wet cloth on her face and opening all the windows he could reach. Mrs. Huff alerted telephone operator Mrs. Jewell Butts at Lanagan, Mo., before passing out again.

Lanagan is three miles from Ginger Blue, which is 20 miles south of Neosho, Mo., near the Arkansas line. Mrs. Butts sent her son, Gene, to the Huff's home and he went to a neighbor's home to call ambulance. The neighbors, Mrs. Ed Clock and her daughter Linda, are registered nurses and they also administered first aid.

The husbands of Mrs. Huff and Mrs. Betjen are employed overseas as Air Force missile technicians.

Safety Pin Tariff Likely to Stay

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sticking to the point, the U.S. tariff commission says the domestic safety pin industry has been rocking along at a fairly even clip for the past 15 years.

The commission said in a report to President Kennedy today it sees no reason why tariffs on foreign safety pins should be reduced.

The commission said it found no reason to conduct a formal investigation to determine whether reduced tariffs would seriously injure the domestic industry, which is pinpointed in Connecticut.

Unless the President overrides the findings, the tariff will remain at 35 per cent.

Tshombe to Return to Katanga

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—Moise Tshombe has agreed to return to his occupied capital for renewed dickering on Congo unification if U.N. forces halt their advance on Kolwezi where his Katangan troops are reported reassembling.

The secessionist president, in messages to diplomats here Tuesday also demanded guarantees for his safety and freedom of movement and that American, British and French consuls escort him on his last third of his journey from Kolwezi to Elisabethville, his capital.

There was no immediate U.N. reaction, but Tshombe's demand for a cease-fire on the road from Elisabethville to Kolwezi was likely to cause difficulty.

U.N. Secretary-General U Thant already has stated that Tshombe and his ministers would not be molested in Elisabethville if they refrained from stirring up trouble for U.N. forces occupying the capital.

But Robert K. A. Gardiner, the Ghanaian chief of U.N. operations in the Congo, has declared the United Nations would not "make the same mistake again" of allowing Katangan armed forces a chance to reorganize.

He referred to U.N. military operations in Katanga in September and December 1961, which ended inconclusively.

As Tshombe's offer was received, Indian U.N. soldiers were halted temporarily at the Lufira River, 50 miles northwest of Elisabethville, by the destruction of two bridges. Emergency bridging equipment was reported en route from Elisabethville.

The Indian task force was attempting to advance through Jadotville, a midway point, toward Kolwezi, 150 miles northwest of Elisabethville, where the scattered remnants of Tshombe's guerrillas and mercenaries were reported reorganizing for guerrilla warfare.

The New Year's Day deadline set by the United Nations for Tshombe's air force to fly from Kolwezi and surrender at the U.N. base at Manono, 300 miles north of Elisabethville, passed without word of compliance or retaliatory action.

Conway Hotel Fire Under Investigation

CONWAY, Ark. (AP)—The fire that destroyed the three-story, 42-year-old Bachelor Hotel here Monday night started on the third floor on the east side of the building, Conway Fire Chief Wilson Drew said Tuesday night.

"That's all I know," Drew said. Fire swept through the building in 35-degree weather Monday night and burned into the early morning Tuesday. All 22 occupants of the hotel escaped without injury, but one fireman hurt his knee while battling the fire.

Billie Stewart of the Conway Fire Department fell in the darkness into a concrete and dirt drainage ditch which was about four feet deep. No other injuries were reported.

Damage to the building was estimated at $125,000 by Noble Barber, owner of the 55-unit hotel. He said it was insured for $80,000. Adjacent structures were saved.

Fire crews from Conway and North Little Rock fought the fire. The North Little Rock crew remained until mid-day Tuesday and several Conway firemen remained on the scene for security purposes Tuesday night.

State Leads in Number of New Jobs

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas is leading the South in the number of new factory jobs per capita since 1955 and also has gained in population, per capita income and wages, the Arkansas Industrial Development Commission said Tuesday.

A 7-year summary of industrial progress showed that new and expanded jobs during the first nine months of 1962 totaled 13,385—the most since 1955.

But William P. Rock, executive director of the AIDC, said the full economic impact of the new jobs probably will not be felt until 1964. He said that is the normal time lags before announced jobs have an effect on the economy of the state.

He also announced that the value of manufactured goods in Arkansas exceeds the value of agricultural products.

Per capita income for Arkansans increased eight per cent in 1961, a rate faster than any other state and four times faster than the national average, the report said.

It also said general and special revenues in 1955 totaled $120 million, compared to $180 million in 1961-62.

Weekly earnings in Arkansas averaged $67.44 in the second quarter of 1962, when average weekly earnings in manufacturing industries were $71.26, the report said.

The average in the second quarter of 1961 were $63.90 in all employment and $67.96 for factory workers, according to the report.

Oil Production About Same

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—Domestic oil production in Arkansas last week remained about the same as in the previous week, the Oil and Gas Journal said Tuesday.

The magazine said Arkansas produced about 75,000 barrels in both weeks.

Production in the United States increased nearly two per cent during 1962, it said. Average daily production last year was reported at 7,356,000 barrels.

Kennedy Is Worried About His Program

By FRANK CORMIER

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—President Kennedy, deeply worried about the fate of his legislative program in the new Congress, is ready to settle for a gradual $5 billion to $10 billion tax cut.

In order to compromise with powerful critics, the President has ordered the Treasury to prepare a tax bill that would bring about the reductions in several carefully spaced steps.

The aim is to lessen the immediate adverse impact on the federal budget deficit.

The President's action, learned from sources privy to Kennedy policy secrets, was influenced by the much-publicized deficit fears of Rep. Wilbur Mills, D-Ark., chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, and Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., chairman of the Senate Finance Committee. These two committees must approve all tax legislation.

It was understood that Kennedy agreed to the compromise approach because he believes without a reduction the nation will return to unemployment levels known only in periods of deep recession. But he hopes that if Congress accepts the tax plan the unemployment rates will drop to the lowest levels since the boom that followed World War II.

But while Kennedy is willing to try compromise on his tax program, authoritative sources said he is determined to push harder for American proposals for solving cold war problems—even if it means leading on the toes of sensitive allies.

Apparently emboldened by the success of the Cuban blockade, the chief executive was said to be willing now to accept criticism from abroad in order to pursue what he believes are the most promising approaches to world issues. He was depicted as accepting complaints from allies as an inevitable by-product of progress.

But there is also the problem of his legislative program's progress. The sources detailed Kennedy's concern about the impending fight to increase the membership of the House Rules Committee from 12 to 15. They also gave his analysis of why a President who rates high in public opinion polls can have great difficulty with Congress.

Kennedy concedes his entire program is in jeopardy.

Holiday Death Toll of 574 Below Forecast

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Traffic 364
Fires 83
Miscellaneous 127
Total 574

The nation's traffic deaths during the long New Year's weekend today appeared to be one of the lowest for a similar four-day holiday and far below early estimates by safety experts.

Belated reports may boost the final total but the count at midnight Tuesday, the end of the 102-hour holiday period, showed 364 deaths in traffic accidents, 83 in fires and 127 in miscellaneous mishaps for a total of 574.

The National Safety Council before the start of the count at 6 p.m. (local time) last Friday estimated a traffic death toll of 420 to 440.

The council revised the figure downward to 350 to 380 after analyzing the number of persons killed in the first three days of the holiday.

The record low traffic death toll for a four-day New Year's holiday was 375 during the 1951-52 period. The record high four-day New Year's traffic toll was 409 in 1956-57.

During the four-day Christmas holiday last year, 446 persons were killed in traffic accidents, 107 died in fire and 85 others in miscellaneous accidents, a total of 638.

Howard Pyle, president of the National Safety Council, said that considering the heavy toll during the long Christmas weekend, "we, engaged in safety work, are gratified that the New Year toll has slowed." He added that "we sincerely hope this indicates a better traffic outlook for 1963 from 1962."

Although final figures are not available, the council has said that traffic deaths in 1962 have totaled more than 40,000 for the first time on record.

State Has 516 Traffic Deaths

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The State Police said Tuesday that Arkansas recorded 516 traffic deaths in 1962, topping the previous high of 503 set in 1941. But the department took note of the fact that Arkansas motorists drive some 21,600,000 miles a day now — almost three times the number of miles driven in 1941.

Lambert was slated to return to his native Washington to make an address but had to cancel due to pressing commitments.

Mrs. Katherine Lauterbach will remain as deputy clerk to Circuit Clerk Jim Cole. Mrs. Brooks Collins will be deputy assessor under Carter Sutton. Mrs. Ed McCorkle resigned the position effective January 1 after serving many years.

Mack Parsons will go to Washington to pick up magazines and newspapers for the Hope Band Boosters on Saturday afternoon, Jan. 5. Washington residents are asked to have their bundles in front of their home by Saturday noon.

12 Killed and 47 Injured in Indiana Meat Plant Blast

By JAMES R. POLK

TERRE HAUTE, Ind. (AP)—An explosion ripped through a meat packing plant today, leaving 12 feared dead and 47 injured.

Deadly ammonia fumes, steam and falling debris hampered rescue operations at the Home Packing Co., shattered by the dawn explosion.

Indiana State Police listed 10 bodies recovered from the wreckage. Two other bodies were spotted in the debris but could not be reached immediately.

Fears mounted that the toll could rise even higher. George Obenchain, secretary-treasurer of the demolished plant, said 14 workers still were unaccounted for.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind. (AP)—An explosion demolished a meat processing room of Home Packing Co. today, killing 11 workers and injuring at least 36 others.

State Police Sgt. James Bailey said six bodies had been taken from the ruins. An army of rescue workers, searching for an undetermined number of other workers, spotted two survivors in the rubble and worked gingerly toward them to avoid any further injury.

Almost three dozen injured were reported in hospitals.

Police and firemen believed the explosion started in a boiler room. Ammonia gas, apparently escaping from ruptured refrigeration lines, hampered the rescue work, and a coal mine rescue squad used gas masks to dig into the rubble.

Company officials had trouble determining exactly how many production workers were in the wrecked section. They set up a temporary office, asking other workers to register for an accounting. Early estimates had about eight unaccounted for in the ruins.

The blast occurred about 7:30 a.m. (CST) as the day workers were reporting at the riverfront plant.

About 75 workers joined in rescue efforts, including six fire companies, civil defense workers and city and state police.

Terre Haute, a city of 72,500, is 70 miles west of Indianapolis near the Illinois line.

Temperatures Moderate Over the U.S.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Temperatures moderated and stormy weather appeared ended in the snow-covered sections of the Northeast today.

There were some wet spots across northern sections of the nation but no heavy amounts of snow or rain were reported.

In the Northeast, which was hammered by the season's worst storm earlier this week, light rain fell in Maine. In Maine, the storm had dumped 37 inches of snow in Old Town and 30 inches in Billinocket. Stiff winds drifted snow 20 feet high in some areas.

Light rain also was reported in the middle Mississippi Valley and in the Pacific Northwest. Freezing drizzle slicked areas in the upper Mississippi Valley while drizzle sprayed the central plains.

Snow fell in the lower Great Lakes region and in parts of the north and middle Atlantic Coast states.

In the eastern third of the nation temperatures ranged from near zero in parts of Michigan to freezing and lower in most other areas, with marks in the upper 50s in southern Florida. It was chilly in much of the Southeast, with temperatures mostly in the 20s as far south as south Georgia.

A cold pocket of air kept temperatures near zero in southern Utah.

Observance of Proclamation

The proclamation came during the Civil War and freed slaves in the United States. The celebration was conducted at a Negro Baptist Church in Little Rock.

Oklahoma's Sen. Kerr Dead at 66

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Robert S. Kerr, D-Okla., a power among powerful men, is dead and his death is expected to have wide ranging repercussions in the White House, the Senate and his home state.

The 66-year-old multimillionaire oilman - senator - toppler of Tuesday morning as he was telling a story to his physician at Doctors Hospital. He died minutes later. Death was attributed to a coronary occlusion.

He entered the hospital Dec. 16 for treatment of a respiratory infection. Doctors found evidence of a heart ailment, but had said he was making good progress.

President Kennedy, who got word of Kerr's death while flying to the Orange Bowl in Miami to see the Oklahoma-Alabama football game, issued a statement hailing Kerr's legislative career as "exceptional."

Gov. J. Howard Edmondson, whose four-year term expires Jan. 14, was shocked at the death of the man sometimes called the uncrowned king of the Senate. Also in Miami for the game, Edmondson conferred with Kennedy and said later he would return to Oklahoma City today.

Speculation arose that Edmondson would resign and then be appointed to fill the vacant seat by Lt. Gov. George Nigh.

The first Republican governor in Oklahoma's history, Henry Bellmon, is to be sworn in Jan. 14. It was anticipated that Democrat Edmondson probably would act to have the vacancy filled before then. Congress convenes Jan. 9.

Kerr's death brings the Senate lineup to 66 Democrats and 33 Republicans.

Rough hewn, with a cutting tongue and a keen mind, Kerr rose to new heights in the first two years of the Kennedy administration. He became both a powerful friend of some presidential legislation and a powerful foe of other Kennedy proposals.

He led the forces which defeated the President's proposal for a federal health insurance program financed through Social Security in the last session.

But when Sen. Harry Byrd, D-Va., chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, stepped aside, it was Kerr who carried the ball much of the time to smashing Senate victory for the president's trade program.

The death of Kerr left uncertain the sponsorship and the fate in the senate of Kennedy's forthcoming tax reduction program.

With Byrd having made it clear he opposes Kennedy's plans for a tax cut without accompanying reductions in spending, administration leaders had hoped to enlist Kerr on their side again, although he, too, had expressed reservations.

Sen. Russell V. Long, D-La., ranking Democrat behind Kerr on the Finance Committee, often does not agree with the administration fiscal proposals.

Southern Cal Wins High Scoring Game

By DAVE O'HARA
Associated Press Sports Writer
PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—Southern California reigned as a battered but unbowed national football champion today while Wisconsin's battling Badgers were hailed in defeat for the wildest finish in Rose Bowl history.

The Trojans, ranked the nation's No. 1 collegiate power after 10 straight 1962 victories, surged to a 42-14 lead early in the fourth period and then hung on for a 42-37 decision Tuesday as time ran out on the Badgers in the 49th annual classic.

"What I wouldn't give for just one minute more," said Wisconsin Coach Milt Bruhn, who beamed with pride over his team's 25-point comeback in the closing minutes. "The clock simply ran out on us."

Apparently hopelessly beaten after Southern Cal scored its sixth touchdown in the opening seconds of the final quarter, the Badgers refused to quit and rallied for three TD's and a safety. The Trojans, shocked and bewildered, were like warriors caught in a stampede, but time was in their favor.

Ron VanderKelen, a senior quarterback who set a total-offense record for the Rose Bowl, passed 19 yards to All-American end Pat Richter to draw Wisconsin within six points with one minute and 19 seconds to play. Gary Kroner then added his fifth conversion boot, raising his consecutive string for the campaign to 32, before he tried an on-side kickoff.

Southern Cal guard Pete Lubisch wrecked the Wisconsin strategy by recovering on his 41. Three plays resulted in a net loss of seven yards and Ernie Jones stepped back to punt. His kick nearly was blocked and the gun sounded before the teams could line up.

Trojan Coach John McKay appeared more like a dejected loser and Bruhn more like a victor after the game. Bruhn, especially, had reason to be sad as Wisconsin failed in two previous trips to the Rose Bowl—losing 7-0 to Washington in 1953 and 44-8 to Washington in 1950.

"We just ran out of tackles," McKay moaned. "We had no tackles. We had guards playing tackle in the second half. Gary Kroner had an accident in his hotel room and tore a couple of his fingers. We kept it a secret. And then Marv Maronovich got tossed out of the game for hitting someone near the end of the first half. Our man behind Maronovich, Mike Gale, was out with a broken neck. We just didn't have the tackles."

Bruhn was disturbed by what he felt was a quick whistle that cost the Badgers a fumble recovery on the Trojan 30 with Wisconsin trailing only 14-7 in the second period. Two plays later Southern Cal scored on a 25-yard dash by Ron Heller, who only last Thursday suffered what was described as "possible a serious knee injury."

VanderKelen and his Southern Cal counterpart, Pete Beathard, were voted co-winners of the Player-of-the-Game award. Vandy, named the Big Ten's most valuable player after he led Wisconsin to the nation's No. 2 ranking with an 8-1 record, set a Rose Bowl total offense mark of 406 yards, including 491 yards on 33 pass completions in 43 attempts. Beathard established a record for the classic by hurling four touchdown passes while completing 8 of 12 tosses for 190 yards.

So far as taxes are concerned, this was the picture provided by unimpeachable sources:

Kennedy believes the unemployment rate will climb above 6 per cent if his program is not accepted by Congress. But if the legislators give their approval, he expects the rate to be held close to 5 per cent and perhaps below that point.

and transport planes participated. No initial contact was reported. Some of the paratroopers were hung up in trees, and several helicopters reported difficulty landing because the Viet Cong had set up helicopter stake traps in the area.

By PETER ARNETT

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Communist groundfire today blasted a fleet of U.S. helicopters flying government troops into battle. Three Americans—including an Army captain—were reported killed, and four others wounded.

It was the deadliest blow trucked at the U.S. forces aiding President Ngo Dinh Diem's pro-Western government in the civil war against the Viet Cong.

Red gunners hit 14 of the 15 U.S. helicopters taking part in the mission in the Mekong delta, bringing down about eight aircraft.

South Vietnamese forces reportedly suffered an estimated 50 casualties.

The Communists, fighting at battalion strength of 400 men or more, stood and fought against relays of government fighter bombers striking at them instead of running for cover as the Reds usually do after an attack.

Hours after the helicopters were shot down, the fighting still raged 50 miles southwest of Saigon with guerrillas attacking in waves in an attempt to reach the downed aircraft.

All American casualties were reported evacuated under blistering automatic small arms and cannon fire.

Communist armor-piercing shells held up armored personnel carriers sent to relieve the defenders before the rescue was carried out.

There were no reports here on ground casualties but losses were believed heavy on both sides.

The Viet Cong sprung a trap on the government forces airlifted by the American helicopters for an attack along a tree-lined canal.

Returning crews said the Communists held their fire as the first groups of helicopters landed and then "all hell broke loose."

The government operation was launched early in the morning in rice-field country bordering the Mekong River.

Oklahoma No Match for Alabama

By BOB HOOBING

MIAMI (AP)—Alabama Coach Paul (Bear) Bryant, whose teams have lost only once in 29 games, is proudest of his Orange Bowl football champions because of their quick, hard but clean play.

The fifth-ranked Crimson Tide with All-American center Lee Roy Jordan sparking an agile though outweighted line, stopped the potent Oklahoma offense 17-0 Tuesday. Jordan forced two fumbles in the first period which swung the balance early.

Alabama actually halted the Sooners at the 6, 8, 10 and 15 yard lines in a remarkable display of defensive excellence.

"Oklahoma is the hardest hitting team we played all year," Jordan commented. "Luckily we were able to anticipate nearly all of their offensive moves."

Jordan anticipated so well that Sam Huff, linebacker with the National Football League's New York Giants, spoke in awe of the eagerly-sought pro draftee. "That boy is really something."

"This game was great for the game of football," Bryant said. "Both teams played hard — and clean. There were only a few 5-yard penalties in the entire contest."

Bryant kept stressing the point, indicating the nation's great defensive genius (39 points in 11 games), still is sensitive about accusations Alabama plays too rough after an injury to a Georgia Tech player against the Tide a year ago.

"We teach nothing but clean football at Alabama," Bryant told a post-game banquet, "despite what some people in another profession have thought sometimes. I'm especially proud of our senior. Everybody played as well as he could."

"Coach Bryant never has taught anything like dirty football," said fullback Eddie Vesprille. "He told us last week that Oklahoma is a hard-nosed team like ourselves and knows what a helmet is for. He said he wanted us to play a clean game—and knock the heck out of 'em."

Rafe, glancing around as though to make sure all were listening, said: "Everything belonging to J. Bender when he dies, including all lands, chattels, equipment, cash, and all notes payable of whatsoever nature, shall be divided, equally, between his daughter Luce and his son Duke."

In the startled quiet Pike, looking up, seemed about to say something when, for the first time since they'd reached town, the old man spoke. "This is truly Rafe . . . my first born," he said in a trembling anguish.

The old man's sightless eyes groped for Rafe. "Yes," he said. "I'll put my name to it."

Pike, with the pen, made a few more scratches.

"Before you fix a place for the names," Rafe said, leaning over the surgeon's shoulder, "there's one more line you better get in. Case of Pa's death by violence, or any reason other than natural causes, the whole shebang goes back to the Territory."

From the door Sparks said, where he stood with Brownwater's rifle: "Bunch of hairpins hollin' into—"

"The Bender crew!" Luce cried, white as egg shells.

Rafe, seeming hardly to notice her words, jerked the kind of a nod you might look to get from one who had just busted loose of his picket pin.

"Ready for the sign?" he grunted at Pike.

"Just about," Bunny's dad said.

"Mr. Bender, you're first."

Luce helped him over. "I'm afraid," Bender sighed. "I never learnt how," and Rafe, watching the hanker, saw the shock in Chilton's stare.

"Just make your mark," Pike said. "Everyone in this room will be witness. Here—let Bunny hold that sack for you."

Luce let the pen in the old man's fingers, guiding the gnarled and trembling hand. One by one the others stepped up and signed. Rafe, coming back from the door, said then: "Now we'll take care of that note, Mr. Chilton."

If ever a man looked caught out it was Chilton. He dug at his collar. "I—I can't seem to find them."

"What can't you find?" The banker flapped his hands helplessly. "The papers . . . I seemed to have mislaid them."

The man squirmed in his clothes, peered distractedly at his sheriff. Bunny, with Bender's sack under one arm and the other hand carelessly holding a pistol, was likewise giving Sparks a close regard. Sweat came out on his cheeks like dew. But nothing else came out of him.

Chilton squirmed some more and finally said, "I suppose it really doesn't matter so long's I give him a receipt and mark it paid in the ledger . . . ?"

"Might not matter to you," Rafe said, "but we're campin' right here till them notes is turned over."

Chilton's face got red. "I've told you I can't find them . . ."

"You want us to think some body stole 'em?"

"I don't care what you think," the banker snarled. "It is certainly not my habit to mislay important papers! I'll give him a re-

Brownwater took the tow sack from Bunny and dropped it on the desk. The dull clink of metal was plainly audible. Audible to was the sound of hoofbeats, and still Chilton stood there.

"Spangler," Rafe said, "won't be no help to you."

The banker looked pretty wild but he got pen and paper. The faint babel of outside voices swelled as the pen scratched into its final flourish.

President Studies Athletic Problem

NEW YORK (AP)—The Amateur Athletic Union's official position on the appeal for arbitration in its squabble with the National Collegiate Athletic Association and the NCAA-backed federations is in the hands of President Kennedy, the AAU said Monday.

Col. Don Hull, executive director of the AAU, said the group's stand was outlined in a message sent by AAU President Louis Fisher to the President on Saturday.

A spokesman said the details of the statement would have to be released by President Kennedy, who has assigned Gen. Douglas MacArthur to arbitrate the dispute that threatens the make-up of U.S. teams for the 1963 Pan American Games in Brazil and the 1964 Olympic Games in Tokyo.

CHATTER

As long as we can remember, advertising has played an important part in the sale of any product. One of the first billboard signs that we can think of was the Dutch Paint Boy with his brush, and it said something about him painting the milky way across the sky. As sure as we looked up at a winter night, we could see that boy leaving a trail of white paint.

A long time ago when we used to order most everything out of a catalog, you paid for it before you ever saw the merchandise. A smart advertising man coined the phrase . . . "Satisfaction guaranteed." Not to be outdone, it was evidently one of his competitors who added the slogan "Satisfaction money back." Of course, it has gone on an on from that; some not only guarantee satisfaction, money back . . . but a trip to Europe and a mink something thrown in . . . all in the effort to please.

The only person we distrust is the one who says . . . "Money cheerfully refunded." We doubt the sincerity of this statement. Can you imagine anyone refunding money cheerfully? Not if they are in their right mind . . . and who wants to shop with someone who isn't?

In this Christmas exchange, we promise to do everything we can to please, and we will refund. But if we are not smiling from ear to ear when we do it, please try to understand.

Seriously, we expect about 50 many adjustments after Christmas, and frankly, we welcome them. Because nine times out of ten, all a woman has to do is come to Raley's Style Shoppe; she will see 50 many things she wants, resistance will simply melt away. We have a sale on coats, suits and dresses. Spring merchandise is coming in; there is excitement galore.

Bring back whatever did not fit or please; let us help you make another selection at Raley's Style Shoppe, Hope House of Fashion.

Life in '63 Promises to Be Better

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK AP)—Life in 1963 promises to be better for you and for me.

Following our usual custom at this season, we dusted off the old crystal ball, and took a long deep look at what it showed about the year ahead.

Well, the view was so optimistic that we hook up that old crystal ball again just to be sure. And when the milky clabber cleared here is what we still saw:

In a gesture for world peace, Soviet Premier Khrushchev decides to let bygones be bygones and organize his own peace corps.

Each of the Soviet peace soldiers will carry to stricken countries overseas (a) a our-pound volume comparing Khrushchev favorably to Lenin, (b) a close-up photo of a Chinese opium den, (c) a rewritten version of a 1912 U.S. Department of Agriculture bulletin on how to raise more pork on fewer acres.

Salaries will go up slightly in the United States, as taxes drop to the point where the deductions in the average man's paycheck fall below his take-home pay.

Internal Revenue Service Commissioner Mortimer Caplin will then move in and say, "It is time for nonexpense account living to go."

But, receiving letters from 1,986,743 outraged wives, he will modify this to say, "Husbands will be allowed to bring home without itemization to any one wife $25 weekly, instead of $10, so long as this is not more than one-fourth of what the average federal employee brings home to his wife. Of course, there may be exceptions, which will be explained later."

Other heartening news: The government of Katanga will offer to pay the overdue bills of the United Nations if it is allowed to send an honor guard of troops to protect the U.N. headquarters in New York.

Mrs. John F. Kennedy's cultural enrichment of the White House will be enhanced by the surprise gift of Harry S. Truman's old poker chips. Daughter Caroline will use them to play tiddlywinks with.

The New York Giants will refuse to play the Green Bay Packers for the National Football League pro championship unless quarterback Y. A. Tittle is assured of a dry warm day—and Jim Taylor and Paul Hornung are sidelined by arthritis.

As for most of us, we'll get a year older and wiser, a year nearer pension time—and know the pleasure of sustaining the human comedy. There'll be more people alive over 65.

Did you manage to get through 1962? Well, more fun's in view in '63. Wait and see!

Lots of Alarms in Arkansas

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Fire Chief Gann Nalley said Tuesday that the Little Rock Fire Department answered 2,346 alarms in 1962, or over 400 more than in 1961. He said part of the increase was due to a 17.8 square mile annexation to Little Rock in late 1961.

DOROTHY DIX The Torments of Love

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: I read your column all of the time and learn a lot from you. Please help me now. When in the eighth grade I started going steady with a girl in the seventh grade. We went together until I entered college. It was my plan to go one semester, serve six months active duty in the National Guard, marry when I got home, then finish college.

I started college in 1960. The first three weeks were just great and I was doing as good as the next guy. One evening on my way home from class I drove to the town's leading jewelry shop and paid a deposit on a complete set of wedding rings. This was September 12. I planned to give my girl a diamond for Christmas. On the 19 of September, the fourth anniversary of our going together, I sent her a dozen red roses.

That evening we had our first fight and broke up two days later. This nearly killed me. My grades plummeted; I could neither eat nor sleep and hated everybody, including myself. Eventually I picked up the wedding rings at the jeweler's and stashed them away in a bureau drawer. There they have stayed.

I hated that girl! Yet all I could think about was her. She went steady with another boy for ten months and now plays the field.

Five months ago another girl flipped for me from the moment we met. I grew increasingly fond of her but every time I run into my first love, the heart races. Yet the girl I now go with is three times finer than the first.

I had to be sure of myself before leading the nice girl on any more so I asked a friend to sound out the other.

He went right to the point, "Joe (not my name) wants to date you again," he said. The tears started rolling down her cheeks as she cried that she didn't want to come between me and my present girl. My friend said he would ask me to phone her. I have not called yet because I don't know what to do. Should I risk losing my present wonderful girl for a date with one who has caused me so much heartache? —Mixed-up Kid

Dear Mixed: Either go back to your first love or put her out of your life forever. Make up your mind what you want—something no one else can do for you. But don't make the mistake of settling for the second simply because she's nice.

Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet, "Are You

Dear Helen: I am to be married this month but my friends don't believe it because I haven't an engagement ring to prove it. My fiancé has been promising me one for months. I don't want to bring up the subject again else he'll think I'm going to be a nagging wife but—I should like even a teeny-weensy little diamond. How can I get one to pledge our troth? —Girl-Without-a-Ring

Dear Girl: An engagement ring doesn't pledge a troth. Only one thing does that—love. Maybe your fiancé can't afford one. What greater bond do you wish than his word? If it's simply the trappings you want then you shouldn't marry him.

Dear Helen: I dropped out of school three years ago to marry. My husband and I separated and my baby and I live with my parents who despise us. I've been holding on in an effort to complete my schooling. The going is rough. At 19 I'm only in the tenth grade. Should I finish school or quit and find a job? My mother reads my mail so please print this and the answer in your column —Confused

Dear Confused: Finish school. The unemployment rate among half-educated teens is at a new high and, at the same time, the job opportunities for college graduates have touched a new high. Check with a local employment agency on the type of work in greatest demand, then channel your studies accordingly. Ask the school counselor to help you. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet, "Ambition."

Brabham Is Going to Houston Club

By MIKE RATHET Associated Press Sports Writer

Money talks. And that was no whisper the National Football League was using at the New Year's Day bowl games, fishing fancy figures that lured prized players Glynn Griffing and Jerry Stovall away from the rival American League.

As a matter of fact, it was the kind of day that left outspoken Harry Wismer, owner of the AFL's New York entry, groping for words.

Griffing, a sharp passer and shrewd signal-caller who was tapped for stardom as a junior when he was selected as a future pick by both leagues, signed with the New York Giants of the NFL minutes after leading undefeated Mississippi to a 17-13 victory over Arkansas in the Sugar Bowl.

Stovall, hard-running All-American back and the No. 1 horse in Louisiana State's stable signed with the NFL's St. Louis Cardinals at the 40-yard line immediately after the Tigers' 13-0 triumph over Texas in the Cotton Bowl.

Griffing and Stovall both were sought by the AFL's Houston Oilers. The Oilers also lost Stovall's teammate, tackle Don Estes, who went to the Cards.

Houston reversed the tables somewhat by grabbing its No. 1 pick, Arkansas fullback Danny Graham, and Oklahoma halfback Paul Lea, who was signed at the Orange Bowl after a 17-0 loss to Alabama. Both were selected by St. Louis in the NFL draft.

Texas fullback Ray Poage went to Minnesota of the NFL, Oklahoma tackle Duane Cook made the Cards his choice, Mississippi back Chuck Morris decided on NFL champion Green Bay, Rebel tackle Jim Dunaway said he was committed to Buffalo of the AFL and Arkansas back Jessie Branch picked Calgary of the Canadian League.

Griffing and Stovall were the big catches as the pro loops dropped their bait, but there was quite a bit of talk about the one that got away—Ron VanderKelen, the Wisconsin quarterback who starred for the Badgers in a 42-37 loss to Southern California in the Rose Bowl.

All 14 NFL clubs left VanderKelen off their draft lists. And that's what made Wismer speechless. He had just learned his club held draft rights to VanderKelen. "He's ours, really?" asked Wismer.

Assured that he was the Titans' No. 21 draft choice, Wismer said: "You can say right now that I'll be willing to give him a five-year contract at $25,000 a year. If the club is sold soon, I'll recommend that the new owners offer it to him. He'd be cheap at that price."

Bearcats to Houston for Cage Game

By ED CORRIGAN

Associated Press Sports Writer

The last time Cincinnati was beaten, the Bearcats had run up a record of 27 straight victories.

Now they've reached 27 games without a loss again and tonight

take on Houston at home.

It was in Dec. 1961 that Coach

Ed Jucker's two-time NCAA champions were ambushed by Whitlatch, 52-51. Since then, except for a loss to Bradley they have moved down all their opposition, including dreaded Ohio State in the NCAA finals.

Houston shows a mediocre 7-5 record, but the Cougars lost two of their games in overtime—to

Michigan and, in the Sugar Bowl

Tournament, to Auburn — and could be tough.

Jucker is worried, too, over the condition of 6-foot-8 Dale Heidtland, who injured an ankle last week and probably won't play.

This is the final non-league game for the Bearcats, No. 1 in the current Associated Press poll, before they begin Missouri Valley operations Saturday against—of all teams—Wichita.

Duke is the only other ranked team scheduled to play tonight.

The Blue Devils, No. 7, with high hopes of sweeping through the Atlantic Coast Conference, play

Virginia on their home court and should have no trouble.

Georgia Tech, a team to be reckoned with in the Southeastern conference puts its undefeated

(7-0) record on the line at home against the Air Force Academy in its final warmup before starting league action against Kentucky Saturday.

In other major games tonight,

Brigham Young is at Memphis

State, Yale is at North Carolina,

Cornell is at North Carolina State,

Florida State is at Tennessee, Indiana plays giant-killer Notre Dame (the Irish knocked Illinois from the undefeated ranks Monday) at Fort Wayne, Ind., and Drake is at Purdue.

"We almost blew it, like the Dodgers."

That's how one of the Southern California players summed up his team's close call in the Rose Bowl Tuesday when Wisconsin turned a laugh—the players' name for a runaway—into a gasper, before the Trojans finally emerged with a 42-37 victory in the highest scoring of all the 49 battles in the Pasadena, Calif. arena.

Southern Cal protected its No. 1 national ranking against the second-ranked Badgers by running up a 42-14 lead early in the fourth quarter, but Wisconsin stormed back with a fantastic 23 points in the final period to shake up the crowd of 98,698 at the oldest of the bowl games.

In the other three bowl battles New Year's Day, Mississippi topped Arkansas 17-13 in the Sugar Bowl at New Orleans, Louisiana State trounced Texas 13-0 in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas and Alabama rolled to a 17-0 decision over Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl at Miami before a crowd that included President Kennedy. The Trojans escaped with their 10th Rose Bowl victory in 13 tries, but not before Wisconsin quarterback Ron VanderKelen led the Badgers to a great last gasp effort.

Wisconsin took its third Rose Bowl loss, and remained the only Big Ten team to play in the bowl without winning. The Badgers have now absorbed three of the four Big Ten losses since the conference began going to Pasadena in 1947.

The Trojans, who share a home town with the Los Angeles baseball Dodgers and who almost shared their fate of blowing a big lead, got off in front before the day's biggest crowd on the first of four scoring passes by Pete Bearthard.

VanderKelen passed the Badgers into tie in the first quarter, but that was the last time the Big Ten team got close until the last quarter. When all appeared lost, VanderKelen led Wisconsin back with three touchdowns and a safety. He threw for two TDs, one to All-America end Pat Richter.

The Trojans finally ran out the clock on three line plays and a punt. The point total was the highest ever in a Rose Bowl, eclipsing the 61 scored in 1930 when Southern Cal defeated Pitt 47-14.

The Sugar Bowl victory was directed by quarterback Glynn Griffing, who signed a contract with the New York Giants right after the game. The score was tied twice, at 3-3 and 10-10. Griffing hit Louis Guy with a 33-yard pitch for one touchdown and scored the other himself from the 1-yard line.

Billy Carl Irwin kicked a 27-yard field goal for Mississippi and Tom McNelly booted two field goals for Arkansas.

Mississippi, the No. 3 team the country, completed its first perfect season in history, against the No. 6 Razorbacks.

Louisiana State, ranked seventh completely stifled No. 4 Texas. No team had scored on the ground against LSU in its last 17 games, and the Longhorns never looked like the team to break the string.

Lynn Amadee, named the outstanding back of the game, kicked field goals of 23 and 37 yards, ground a third period touchdown scored by Jimmy Field on a 22-yard run.

All-America center Lee Roy Jordan did the major wrecking job for No. 5 Alabama over No. 8 Oklahoma at the Orange Bowl.

He banged Sooner fullback Jim Grisham loose from the football line in the first half, and his mates recovered both fumbles. Oklahoma was unable to mount an effective offensive after that, though the Sooners went into the game with the second best rushing attack and the third best total offense in the nation last season.

Joe Namath, the smooth 'Bama quarterback had a hand in both the Tide touchdowns. He pitched to Dick Williamson for 25 yards and at Cotton Clark on a pitchout that was good for 15 yards and the second score.

Tim Davis added a 19-yard field goal in the third period.
